

2010
GREAT
MISSISSIPPI
ROAD
TRIP

October 8-10, 2010

COME JOIN US FOR

MISSISSIPPI CENTER FOR JUSTICE

2010 GREAT
MISSISSIPPI
ROAD TRIP

OCTOBER 8-10, 2010

Enjoy the Blues, Food and Culture of the Mississippi Delta and see the Mississippi Center for Justice at work.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8

Kick off your weekend getaway by joining us at the 2010 Champions of Justice Dinner in Jackson, where you will hear an in-depth account of the Center's work to advance racial and economic justice across the state. Make your travel plans to arrive in Jackson in time for the 6 p.m. reception and dinner at the Downtown Marriott.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9

Hop on the bus for the Great Mississippi Road Trip that is sure to entertain, inspire and enlighten! The 2010 Great Mississippi Road Trip takes you from Jackson on a deluxe bus tour north to the historic Mississippi Delta, with Saturday night stay in Greenwood.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 10

Enjoy a full Southern breakfast before departing for Greenville and a close-up of the Mississippi River. Relax with a box lunch as you return to Jackson after a fun-filled and informative tour of the Mississippi Delta. We will accommodate the travel requirements and afternoon flight times of all registered participants.

PO' MONKEY'S

Hop on the bus for the 2010 Great Mississippi Road Trip and get ready for a whirlwind of mouth-watering culinary delights, awe-inspiring musical talent and the captivating, legendary tales best heard on the fertile soil of the Mississippi Delta.

Enjoy in-depth visits to civil rights memorials and an overview of the exciting work the Mississippi Center for Justice is doing in our ongoing battle to advance racial and economic justice. Along the way, visit clubs that have nurtured world-renowned blues musicians and new points of interest that celebrate the best of the Delta.

Book your stay for Saturday evening at the luxurious Alluvian Hotel in Greenwood, a new Delta tradition. Experience the fiery beauty of a Mississippi sunset over the lush Delta cotton fields and venture out to dinner at one of the delectable local eateries. Soak up the sights and sounds of the glorious Mississippi river on Sunday morning as we begin our journey back to Jackson. It is a road trip like no other!

B.B. KING MUSEUM

ROAD TRIP STOPS

- The B.B. King Museum, Indianola
- Club Ebony, B.B. King's hometown blues club that has welcomed Ray Charles, James Brown and more
- Dockery Farms, a historic Delta plantation that some call the birthplace of the blues
- Sunflower County, site of a civil rights era voter registration drive and the Fanny Lou Hamer Memorial in Ruleville
- Bryant's Grocery in Money, where Emmett Till's fatal encounter helped launch the Civil Rights Movement
- Po' Monkey's, a legendary juke joint on Mississippi's Blues Highway

For a reading list and to find out more about points of interest and people who will join us on this trip, visit www.mscenterforjustice.org.

MISSISSIPPI DELTA

ACCOMMODATIONS

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8

Marriott Hotel in Downtown Jackson

Phone: 800-256-9194

Group Rate: $109

Group Name: Mississippi Center for Justice

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9

Alluvian Hotel in Greenwood

Phone: 866-600-5201

Group Rate: $175

Group Name: Mississippi Center for Justice

Please make your own hotel reservations by September 3, 2010.

REGISTRATION

Register now to reserve your spot for this incredible Mississippi Delta experience!

Name _____

Company _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

The 2010 Great Mississippi Road Trip

Qty. _____ x $350 (per person) = _____

Early Bird:

Qty. _____ x $300 (per person) = _____

Register by July 30 and save $50 per person!

Price includes:

- Champions of Justice Dinner Friday, October 8
- Deluxe bus accommodations for weekend travel
- Admission to all sites, including the B.B. King Museum
- Lunch, refreshments and entertainment Saturday, October 9
- Breakfast, lunch and entertainment Sunday, October 10

Make checks payable to:

Mississippi Center for Justice

P.O. Box 1023, Jackson, MS 39215-1023

Or register on-line at www.mscenterforjustice.org.

For more information, contact Lauren Welford at 601-352-2269 or e-mail at lwelford@mscenterforjustice.org.

Visit www.mscenterforjustice.org for more information.

Early Bird Registration: July 30, 2010

Final Registration: September 3, 2010